

KERRY GRAY
Chartered Accountant

Kerry is the International Tax Director at Cross Border Tax & Accounting, whose parent company is KeatsConnolly, the largest cross-border wealth management firm in North America that specializes in helping Canadians and Americans realize their dreams of a cross-border lifestyle. Kerry is responsible for providing clients with the best cross-border tax planning, and ensuring that our professional staff receives the best cross-border tax training.

Prior to joining KeatsConnolly, Kerry provided Canadian and US personal tax consulting and compliance training to executives of international companies. He also assisted these organizations in developing policies for their employee relocations. His last 37 years were at Ernst & Young where he was a tax partner in their Human Capital - Global Mobility practice for 26 years. He was the leader of the Human Capital practice from its establishment in 1999 until 2004.

Kerry enjoys attending sporting events, playing golf and curling.
